FINDS A PACKAGE OF MONEY, RETURNS IT AND GETS REWARD.

WILLIAM SHEA,

Who found $39 in cash and returned it to the owner, who advertised his loss in the "Lost and Found" column of The Republic.

William Shea, 18 years old, who lives with his aunt, Mrs. Mary Halpin, at No. 812 South Eighth street, and works in the office of the Barnes-Crosby Company, found a package containing $39 in cash and returned it to its owner. For his honesty he received a reward of envelope was not addressed, and Shen, who was in a hurry, put it in his pocket and decided to examine its contents after attending to the business which called him from the office.

"fat" letter lying on the sidewalk. The certainly deserved the reward."

He was working at his desk later in the day when he happened to recall the matter, and taking the envelope from his pocket he opened it and found four small envelopes containing currency amounting to $29.

ing, helping his aunt. Tife money in the envelope without anything written upon to indicate its owner seemed a large sum to him, but his grandmother, Mrs. Kate Halpin, who raised him, end who died a short time ago, had inculcated the strictest principles of honesty, and his first thought was to find the person who lost the money. When he took the money home his aunt suggested that he read the "Lost and Found" column in The Republic to see if the owner had advertised. Turning to that list of amnouncements in The Republic Want Ads on Sunday, Shea saw the following:

MONEY-Lest, about $10 included in four small envelopes with large envelope inclosing sil. Will be pleased to reward finder. C. Andreas & Son. No. 415 North Third st.

As Shen had to go to his work yester day morning he sent the money to Conrad Andreas. Mrs. Halpin did not ask for the reward, but Mr. Andreas insisted that the poy should be rewarded for his honesty and sent him $10. Mr. Andreas did not express great surprise at getting his money. "I lost the money Saturday morning on the way to my place of business, and discovered the loss when I put my hand in my pocket for money to pay off my men.

"I inserted an advertisement in the Sunoffice. No. 214 Third street, Saturday, he day Republic and bright and early this noticed what appeared to be an unusually morning I get my money back. The boy
